NATURE EVENTS

Saturday • November 2

Nature Printmaking Giftbags

This season, make your gift giving a little greener by creating one-of-a-kind giftbags from recycled grocery sacks. We will decorate the bags with a holiday flair using different techniques of nature printing.

Saturday • Nov 9

Build Your Own Nature Journal

Discover a new way to enjoy and learn about the beauty of nature by creating a nature journal!

Saturday • November 16

Project FeederWatch Kick Off

Join the Missouri River Bird Observatory to kick off Project FeederWatch! FeederWatch offers a unique opportunity to connect with nature and contribute to conservation efforts. Smart phones or tablets are recommended.

Saturday • Nov 23

Show Me Owls

Learn the different species of owls that can be found in Missouri and practice their calls. We'll also dissect real owl pellets.

Saturday • November 30

Nature Play at Sycamore Station

Want to get outside with the family for a little escape from turkey, shopping and football? Build a fort, snuggle with some furs, roast a marshmallow or pretend what it might have been like playing in the wild like the old days. No screens or electricity!
