

November NATURE EVENTS

Saturday • November 1

Project FeederWatch 2025: DC Kickoff

Discover the joy of birdwatching with us as we launch this year's Project FeederWatch! We'll start with a hands-on introduction then head outside to make our first observations.

Sat • Nov 8

Black Bear Chat

Join a naturalist for a fun-filled program about the American black bear. Learn about their habitat and what they eat!

Saturday • November 15

Outstanding Owls

Join a naturalist at the Discovery Center to learn about owl adaptations and discover what owls eat through a hands-on activity. There will be no live owls during this program.

Tue • Nov 18

Owl Walk

Discover the amazing world of owls as we venture onto the trails at the Discovery Center. Seeing an owl is not guaranteed.

Saturday • November 29

Nature Play at Sycamore Station

Get outside with the family for a little escape from turkey, shopping and football. Pretend what it might have been like playing in the wild like the old days! No screens or electricity!
